AWFUL POVERTY IN NEW YORK.

A prominent merchant in this city, says the Salt Lake Tribune, yesterday received a letter from a leading manufacturer of New York City. The writer in New York was schoolboy friend of the merchant here, and a strong friendship and perfect confidence have existed between the two for a quarter of a century.

We are permitted to copy a part of the letter, as follows:

The Democratic party have always done what they are now trying to do. This will be the last of them for fifty years.

Take our business for example. It has been extremely dull since July 1st. We are running only one-half the mill, and that on three-quarters time, and can't say how soon we shall shut down for good. Should the Wilson bill pass as it is, we would have to close down entirely until such time as our help would work for 50 per cent of what they now get. They, with few exceptions voted the Democratic ticket; they wanted the change and they have it; as Cleveland said he wanted the people to have an object lesson. Well, the poor devils, what a sorry one it is, and one they, I hope, will never forget.

On Saturday, one week ago, from Forty-second street to Fifty-ninth street, from Ninth avenue to Eleventh avenue—seventeen blocks by two—there were 7200 people out of employment, starving and no fire in the house. On a Monday morning a few weeks ago, at the precinct on Fifty-seventh street, east of Third avenue, there were 2000 dispossession warrants handed to marshals to put that many families out on the street, many and many with no means to hire a cart to remove their little belongings to a place of shelter, in which case the city carts them to the corporation yard, never to be redeemed. Opposite our mill on the avenue there is a row of tenements. A family was turned out last week. Their little things showed that they had seen better days. Their bedding was on top of their other things and was exposed to rain and snow for five days, when the authorities removed them.

Soup houses are opened, as well as places where clothing is given away. Nothing of the like since 1857-58. It was Democratic then as now. This will be the hardest winter and spring ever seen. There is nothing to help us out. Even though the Wilson bill should not pass, it will require years to overcome the damage already done.

There is more of the same kind in the letter. It gives an idea that we in the West do not know much about suffering and hard times, after all.

We look to see bread riots before spring. May be New York needs that experience in order to learn a little wisdom.

From the above we can get a clear idea that it is not over-production that is the trouble in this country, but, rather, under-consumption, and it is because the people are too poor to buy life's most urgent necessities. There is but one remedy; when will New York City learn the fact and clamor for silver dollars and silver recognition?

A Great Paper.

Sam Davis' new paper, the Mid-winter Appeal and Journal of 49, is beyond question the most unique thing in journalism produced on this Coast for years. The day after it was issued it was the talk of the town, and now it is almost impossible to secure a copy. It is published for the '49 Mining Camp, and it is the biggest advertisement of the camp that could possibly be made. Old-timers will read its pages with delight, as it brings up once more in reality the dreams of old days. Its illustrations are better than the art work of the dailies, and its columns fairly teem with good things—S. F. Star.

Deputy Constable S. E. Patterson is authorized to collect all accounts due Summers & Dauchy.

Dissolution of Co-Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing under the firm name of Fryer & Cunningham, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All accounts due said firm and all bills owed by said firm will be settled by George Fryer, who will hereafter conduct the business.
